DVDD OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. PRIDAY DECRUBER 21

> Passage of the Secession Ordinance. By reference to the next page, it will be eeen that the South Carolinians are rapidly approaching the culmination of their follies. They have, by a unanimous vote, passed the seconion ordinance, introduced by Mr. Ingols.

The News. Our dispatches will be found unusually varied and interesting. The firm stand of Benator Johnson, of Tennessee, against secession, and for the enforcement of the laws by any means that may be necessary, will merit the approbation of all national and conservative men.

Advertisements and the News. The pressure of business and of telegraphic news upon our columns cuts short editorial comment, and several articles which we had prepared with especial view to saving the Union, are crowded out. We are obliged to leave the Union to the tender mercies of our cotemporaries for a few days.

Emerson's "Conduct of Life." Messrs. Rickey, Mallory & Co. have for sale this work, which has aiready been notleed in this paper, and which has probably attracted greater general attention at the outset than any philosophical work that was ever published.

The Constitution and the Enforcement of the Laws.

The appearance of J. Scott Harrison on the platform at the Union meeting, brought to mind that he was the recognized leader of the party whose peculiar mission it was to save the Union, and whose sole platform was the captivating sentiment which forms the caption of this paragraph. It then gave a feeling of security to know that no matter how the party chances might eventuate, there would be one party that would demand the preservation of the Union by the maintenance of the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws.

The appearance of Mr. Harrison also recalled to mind that the party of the Union the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws, has hardly made itself heard since these have been threatened. It would seem as if saving the Union and the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws, was a virtue whose victories were achieved when neither of these were in danger, and which retires on its laurels when the election is over, and the Union, the Constitution and the laws are threatened with armed rebellion. It was supposed that a party which had devoted its attention exclusively to saving the Union in Holiday Books, a time of safety, would be most comperent to prescribe for it when it is in danger.

People naturally expected from Mr Harrison a reaffirmation of the platform of the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws, as the only way to save the Union. But Mr. Harrison seemed to have lost confidence in his specific. Instead of the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws, he now prescribed compromise and concession. Compromise the Constitution! Concede any part of the enforcement of the laws! This may be well, but it is different from the parmaceti which was the sovereignest thing for an inward Union brutse before the circle tion. It is calculated to create a doubwhether the vessel that goes down as soon as the weather grows stormy is in t the cinft to embark in when the sea is smooth.

THE ARRA OF THE CITY OF LONDON,-The city of London proper, the extent of the jurisdiction of the Lord Mayor, is quite a small place, covering an area of only 370 acres—less than one-half the size of the Cenral Park in New York City. But the whole city covers an area of 75,000 acres, and contains a population of nearly or quite 2000 acres.

The leans of one single banking-house exceed $150,000,000 per annum, and twenty bankers now clear £1,000,000,000, or $4,800,-600,000, a sum almost past comprehension.

The value of real property in the city, insured against fire, though probably not fifty per cent. actually insured, amounts to a sum at least of $200,000,000,000.

"The first of her writings which made a sensation here was the 'Heir,' and what a sensation it was! Beferring to the remains of the ten-washed covers of the copy aforesaid, we find it belonged to the 'eighth thousand.' How many thousands have been issued since by the publishers to supply the demand for new, and the places of drowned, dissolved or swept-away old copies, we do not attempt to conjecture. Not individuals merely, but households—consisting in great part of tendor-hearted young damasls—were plunged into mourning. With a tolerable acquaintance with fictitious heroes (not to speak of real ones), from Str Charles Grandison down to the nursery idol, Carlton, we have little hesitation in pronouncing Sir Guy Morville, of Redclyffe.
